

LITTLE BIT HORROR

Evinced at the Capital When the News of Mr. Frick's Shooting

WAS FLASHED OVER THE WIRES.

Expressions of Relief That the Assassin Is Not a Home Stealer.

A SCENE BETWEEN OATES AND DEVLIN

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Since the memorable day of the fight between the Pinkertons and the workers...

Like the news of that terrible affair, the news of the shooting of Mr. Frick reached the House and Senate early in the afternoon.

While every one recognized that the attempted assassination was not the work of any of the immediate actors in the Homestead strike...

The most suggestive of acts, Berkman might be a nihilist, anarchist, fanatic or what not...

One Senator who has been very broad and clear in his utterances in regard to the Homestead affair...

Much wonder is expressed that Mr. Frick should have exposed himself as he did, especially in view of the experience of Russell Sage and others in New York...

Much speculation is indulged in as to the effect upon public sentiment for or against the workers...

Among what may be called "the working classes" of Washington...

On all sides the shooting is one topic of conversation, and at every turn excited colloquies may be heard...

Without murmur in any circumstance was admitted to be savage and brutal...

DEATH IN A DINNER.

Five Partakers Die Either From Poison or Cholera Morbus, and

AS MANY MORE CANNOT SURVIVE.

The Victims Had Eaten Butter Beans That Were Not Quite Fresh.

AN AUTOPSY DISCLOSES NO ARSENIC

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

Haverhill, Mass., July 23.—Five members of a dinner party at the Cable House, Salisbury beach, July 20, are dead and five more are dying.

All the victims suffered intensely before dying, and those who are now alive are in great agony.

The doctors think the beans were not as fresh as they should have been, and that the essential oil "ptomaine" had developed.

An autopsy was performed to-day on the body of Daniel McCarthy, and no traces of mineral poison were found.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF. —Mr. Erna is said to be subsiding. —The grip is increasing in Valparaiso.

—Smallpox in British Columbia has been eradicated. —The epidemic in Chicago is reaching for a war of independence.

—Friday was the hottest day of the summer at Ft. Wayne, Ind. —The cases of the Tazewell county lynchings have been solved.

—Weaver will swing around the circle through the silver states. —The Honduras Government has closed its coast to foreign commerce.

—Newfoundland will receive an Imperial loan for the benefit of St. John's harbor. —The annual report of the United States for 1921 is being read in the Brazilian Chamber of Deputies.

—Dr. Palmage is still the lion of the hour in Petersburg, where he is the guest of the czar. —The strike of Wabash railroad men in Indiana has ended in a complete victory for the men.

—A joke started a run on the People's Savings Bank at Evansville, Ind., which has been arrested for passing counterfeit money. —An earthquake at Guadalajara, Mexico, damaged the state house, cathedral, hospital and many private houses.

—The Eskimo tribe in South Africa who were recently released from slavery in the British, are becoming aggressive again. —Two men, who had been sentenced for a long time to a mine at Billin, a town of Bohemia, have been released alive. They had been with the mine for 17 years.

—Canadian militia have been ordered to leave Aux Courbes, where Bouchar, the liquor smuggler, has successfully resisted the shooting force. Bloodshed is expected. —For the second time in the history of Canada exports have exceeded imports, the only other year in which the balance of trade was in favor of the Dominion being 1888.

—San Antonio police have arrested Joe McDonald, a painter and fire bug, who had started many a blaze in that city. He had a large amount of stolen goods in his possession. —Five of the largest breweries of Cincinnati have entered into a combination to sell beer at 87 cents per barrel. Scrofula Humor. "For 4 years I suffered with scrofula. Itches came out all over my body, and swelling on the right side of the neck, and in less than a year I had lost 40 lbs. I was induced by H. L. Tubbs, our druggist, to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the blotches and lumps in my neck disappeared, and I soon began to gain in flesh. In 4 months there was none of the disease left in my system, and I was as well and strong as ever." W. D. DORR, Osceola, South Dakota. "I can vouch for the above. I can show 45 prescriptions I put up for Mr. Donor, which did him no good. I urged him to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and he is now cured." H. L. Truax, druggist, Osceola, South Dakota.
